

Do you have a Passion for Agriculture? A Drive for Personal Growth?

If you do, and are seeking an opportunity to SOAR in your collegiate career, apply today for the 2017 AFA Leaders Conference. The AFA Leaders Conference will be held November 2-5, at the Crown Center in Kansas City, Missouri. This four day Conference connects college students studying food and agriculture to key leader development opportunities, connections with industry leaders and potential internship and career opportunities.

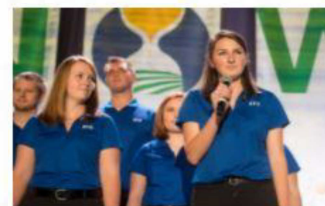

Conference attendance is based on a selection process. Applicants are reviewed on their passion, talent and commitment to the food and agriculture industry, as well as leader involvement. Once selected, AFA's Partners cover your program registration, hotel, and meals. The only cost to you is travel to Kansas City!

To learn more about AFA Leaders Conference and this year's theme, check our video here.

Applications due September 11th.

APPLY NOW

www.agfuture.org/apply17

Questions? Contact Annie Storey at annie.storey@agfuture.org or call us at 816-472-4232 ext. 19.